1-10. Commentary on the Life History of the Elder Kuṭajapupphiya and So On

From here onwards too, for the ten elder monks beginning with the Elder Kuṭajapupphiya who have come in the nineteenth chapter, there is nothing not already explained. For those elder monks, by the influence of the accumulation of merit done in the presence of former Buddhas, their well-known names and their cities of residence and so on should be understood in the manner already stated above - thus all those life histories are easily understood.

The commentary on the nineteenth chapter is complete.
