202. Therein, whatever person by himself awakens to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, and therein attains omniscience and mastery over the powers, the Perfectly Enlightened One should be seen by that.

Therein, whatever person by himself awakens to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, but therein does not attain omniscience nor mastery over the powers, the Paccekabuddha should be seen by that.

Therein, whatever person does not by himself awaken to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, but in this very life makes an end of suffering and attains the perfections of a disciple, Sāriputta and Moggallāna should be seen by that.

Therein, whatever person does not by himself awaken to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, but in this very life makes an end of suffering, and does not attain the perfections of a disciple, the remaining Worthy Ones should be seen by that.

Therein, whatever person does not by himself awaken to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, and does not in this very life make an end of suffering, but is a non-returner, one who does not come back to this state of being, the non-returner should be seen by that.

Therein, whatever person does not by himself awaken to the truths regarding phenomena not heard before, and does not in this very life make an end of suffering, but is one who comes back to this state of being, the stream-enterer and once-returner should be seen by that.
